7. Description Of Incident

We were sailing to the left layline on starboard tack in the second half of the second upwind in the innerloop. The GBR6321 came towards us on port tack. We hailed to them to make sure they had noticed us coming in on starboard tack.

If we hadn't beared down to avoid contact, we would have hit the other boat in the middle, close to the stays.

We steered behind them, lost a lot of height and our lane. We lost at least 6 boats by this incident. After we ducked the GBR6321 we yelled 'Protest 6321'. We checked, and they didn't do a penalty turn.
