7. Description Of Incident

Both were approaching the mark on starboard side. UKR was bow forward. Suddenly the wind header just right at the mark, UKR had to tack. I was laying just right on the layline that's why I didn't have to tack. He was clear for his first tack but that was in the zone at the top mark and i was in the zone as well. He crossed me just right in front of my bow. Then he tacked on top of me super close. He protested me and not giving me room. He was bearing away on me so i tried to avoid contact by slowing the boat down a bit. Then we both rounded the mark.
