7. Description Of Incident

On the first downwind of race 4 at the approach to the gate the fleet had overstood the port layline. On the approach to the gate UAE became overlapped from clear astern and kept sailing higher and pushing herself and SWE about 5 boatlengths over layline. She sailed clearly over her proper course and therefore broke rule 17. Swe and uae had to do a gibe back to starboard to get around the mark. UAE was then on the inside and rounded ahead of swe.

See case 7 on racing rules of sailing.

There was no collision.
