7. Description Of Incident

wind from 230 degree, both boat were using their Spainnakers and on the same tack, Pepper and Salt was on the windward side and Baby beluga was on the starboard side of Pepper and salt and overlapped, after hailing 4 times of, "windward boat keep clear", Pepper and salt ignored and still tried to bear away and tried to overtake and crossed from Baby belugas's bow, gust coming and Baby beluga luffing, the spinnaker pole which was set at the bow of Baby beluga was hit by the startboard stern of Peper and salt, resulting in irreperable damage to the pole and resulting in baby beluga beung unable to use the spinnaker for the rest of the race. Pepper and salt clearly broke RRS Rule 11, as they failed to keep clear of the leeward boat, despite veinf repatedly hailed to do so.
