7. Description Of Incident

Abigail was pushed pushed above the group of boats planning to start beside the committee boat. She then tacked around onto port and attempted to come back down into the group of boats on the line. I was on starboard on the start line at 30s to go, Abigail was coming back down onto the line, on port, when she hit into my boat. I attempted to avoid her but was unable to as there were boats on either side of me. Abigail then tacked above me to windward and her stern repeatedly hit my bow. I attempted to avoid her stern and rudder repeatedly but was unable to. I repeatedly asked her to do her turns. I kept my eyes on her for the remainder of the upwind and she still failed to do her turns
