7. Description Of Incident

The polish fx was above layline on starboard tack and called for right of way. We came on port tack leeward and slightly in front of the boat hun 248. We had to maneuver to avoid a collision with Pol 280 and requested room to tack from Hun 248 from early on. Hun 248 did not react and maneuvered very late, which was followed almost simultaneously by our maneuver. As a result of this late maneuver, pol 280 was forced to adjust their course slightly. A hail for protest by them was given and we have a hail for protest to hun 248.
