7. Description Of Incident

I couldn't Reach The start line in time bevaned there Was a long queue of launching boats.

This is due to the fact that other laser master and apprentice doesn't respect the assigned boat parking area.

In fact they stat in front of the pier to launch for First and they reached the line Early. I don't find right that people that respecst the commettee instruction like me, that i park my Boat in the right place should be damaged .

Please restore my points in the score .

Let me know please
