7. Description Of Incident

Both boats were on starboard close hauled Ned ahead and to leeward perhaps ten boat lengths away. Ned then tacked to port. We hailed starboard. There then seemed to be some discussion between helmsman and middleman of Ned and perhaps an attempt to bear away behind us, which was unsuccessful. Ned then continued and in order to avoid a collision we had to bear away from starboard close hauled to avoid them. Perhaps by half a boat length. We then hailed please take penalty turn with no response, then hailed protest and shed flag. As far as we are aware no penalty was taken, certainly not immediately.
