7. Description Of Incident

1363 (I) was approaching the windward mark as part of a line of starboard tack boats laying the mark . 1425 came to the windward mark on port within about at the 3 boat lengths from the mark ... he aim to squeeze behind me but the boat behind shouted starboard ... he headed up and hit my stern quarter and my rudder the boat behind had to take avoiding action .

1425 had no rights to come in on port against starboard tack boats .

1425 rounded the windward mark and hioisted his spinnaker ... he failed to do a penalty turn ...I repeated hail of protest do turn . 1425 responded by saying "I have until the leeward mark to do turns..." ...

1425 failed to complete a penalty turn .

8. Damage Or Injury

Scratch of port quarter Pintles appear unaffected but considering the force of contact will require closer inspection.
