7. Description Of Incident

I would like to ask a question. I missed a protest against me as I was not aware of it occurring (there was no protest hailed on the water). I know I should have checked the website but I had to go with my brother to the doctor and I forgot.

Is there a possibility for me to ask to reopen the protest?

I know what situation they are referring to and can fully explain why I was going faster than them and how I did it. It was not by pumping but by watching the wind change and by sailing a straight line to the mark instead of a banana.

Kind regards,
Jasmijn
