Scoring Inquiry:

Following my earlier submission, I would like to revise my son's scoring review submission on his behalf. After further discussion, i understand that correct submission for him not completing the course, due to his confusion over the second lap, should be RETIRED. Please revise the results accordingly.

Thank you for suggestion to reward my son for his honesty. That would obviously mean a lot to him and would hopefully send a good message to other competitors as well.

Thanks and regards

Jonathan Hardy

Response Title:

Corrected Score: 78

We would like to applause Samuel for being honest about his race 2 result. We understand this is a painful lesson for him but it will be a good experience for his future races. We would also like to applause you for encouraging him to step forward for what he has done. In such a competitive environment, not more parent and sailor will be willing to admit their mistake. The race committee is working on something to reward Samuel's courage and honesty. We will contact you soon. Please continue to educate Samuel the right value instead of winning. Thank you.
